We are pleased to announce James P. Nolan, II has recently been admitted to the Bar of the State of Florida.

Jim joined Smith, Rolfes & Skavdahl in 1999 and is a Shareholder of the Firm. His areas of practice include insurance coverage, defense, and bad faith litigation. Before he began practicing law 25 years ago, Jim worked in the property-casualty insurance field and obtained the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation.

Jim heads the Firm's Coverage Practice. The attorneys serving in the Coverage Practice group provide our clients analysis of coverage issues on a national level, as well as representing our clients in declaratory judgment actions involving litigation of insurance coverage disputes.

In addition to his recent admission to the Florida Bar, Jim is admitted to practice in Ohio, Kentucky, and the local federal courts.

Smith, Rolfes & Skavdahl Co., L.P.A. welcomes the opportunity to serve any of our clients in the State of Florida or elsewhere should the need arise.

Please feel free to contact us at any time.
